Great opportunity for hunting & investment in the rolling hills of Lunenburg Co. 104 deeded acres with a creek and towering hardwood strips meandering through recent cutover timber. Great location for a custom homesite and soil maps indicate it is good for a conventional septic system almost anywhere on the tract. Great for a weekend getaway also! Wildlife abounds in this area so it will be great for hunting and is nestled next to hardwood and pines stands of timber with farmland close It is also a great tract for shooting, camping, 4 wheeling and everything else the country offers you, your family, and friends. Established road on property provides great access. 75 acres of freshly replanted and sprayed cutover. Come make your mark now with trails and food plots. Remainder is drainage & creek areas providing the edges that wildlife like. This tract is about an hour from the Richmond area and is a little more from Hampton Roads and the Raleigh area. Lunenburg County is a county located in the Commonwealth of Virginia. As of the 2020 census, the population was 11,936. Its county seat is Lunenburg. According to the U.S. Census Bureau, the county has a total area of 432 square miles.

Lunenburg County was established on May 1, 1746, from Brunswick County. The county is named for the former Duchy of Brunswick-Lünenburg in Germany, because one of the titles also carried by Britain's Hanoverian kings was Duke of Brunswick-Lünenburg. Bedford, Charlotte, Halifax, and Mecklenburg Counties were later formed from Lunenburg County.-
